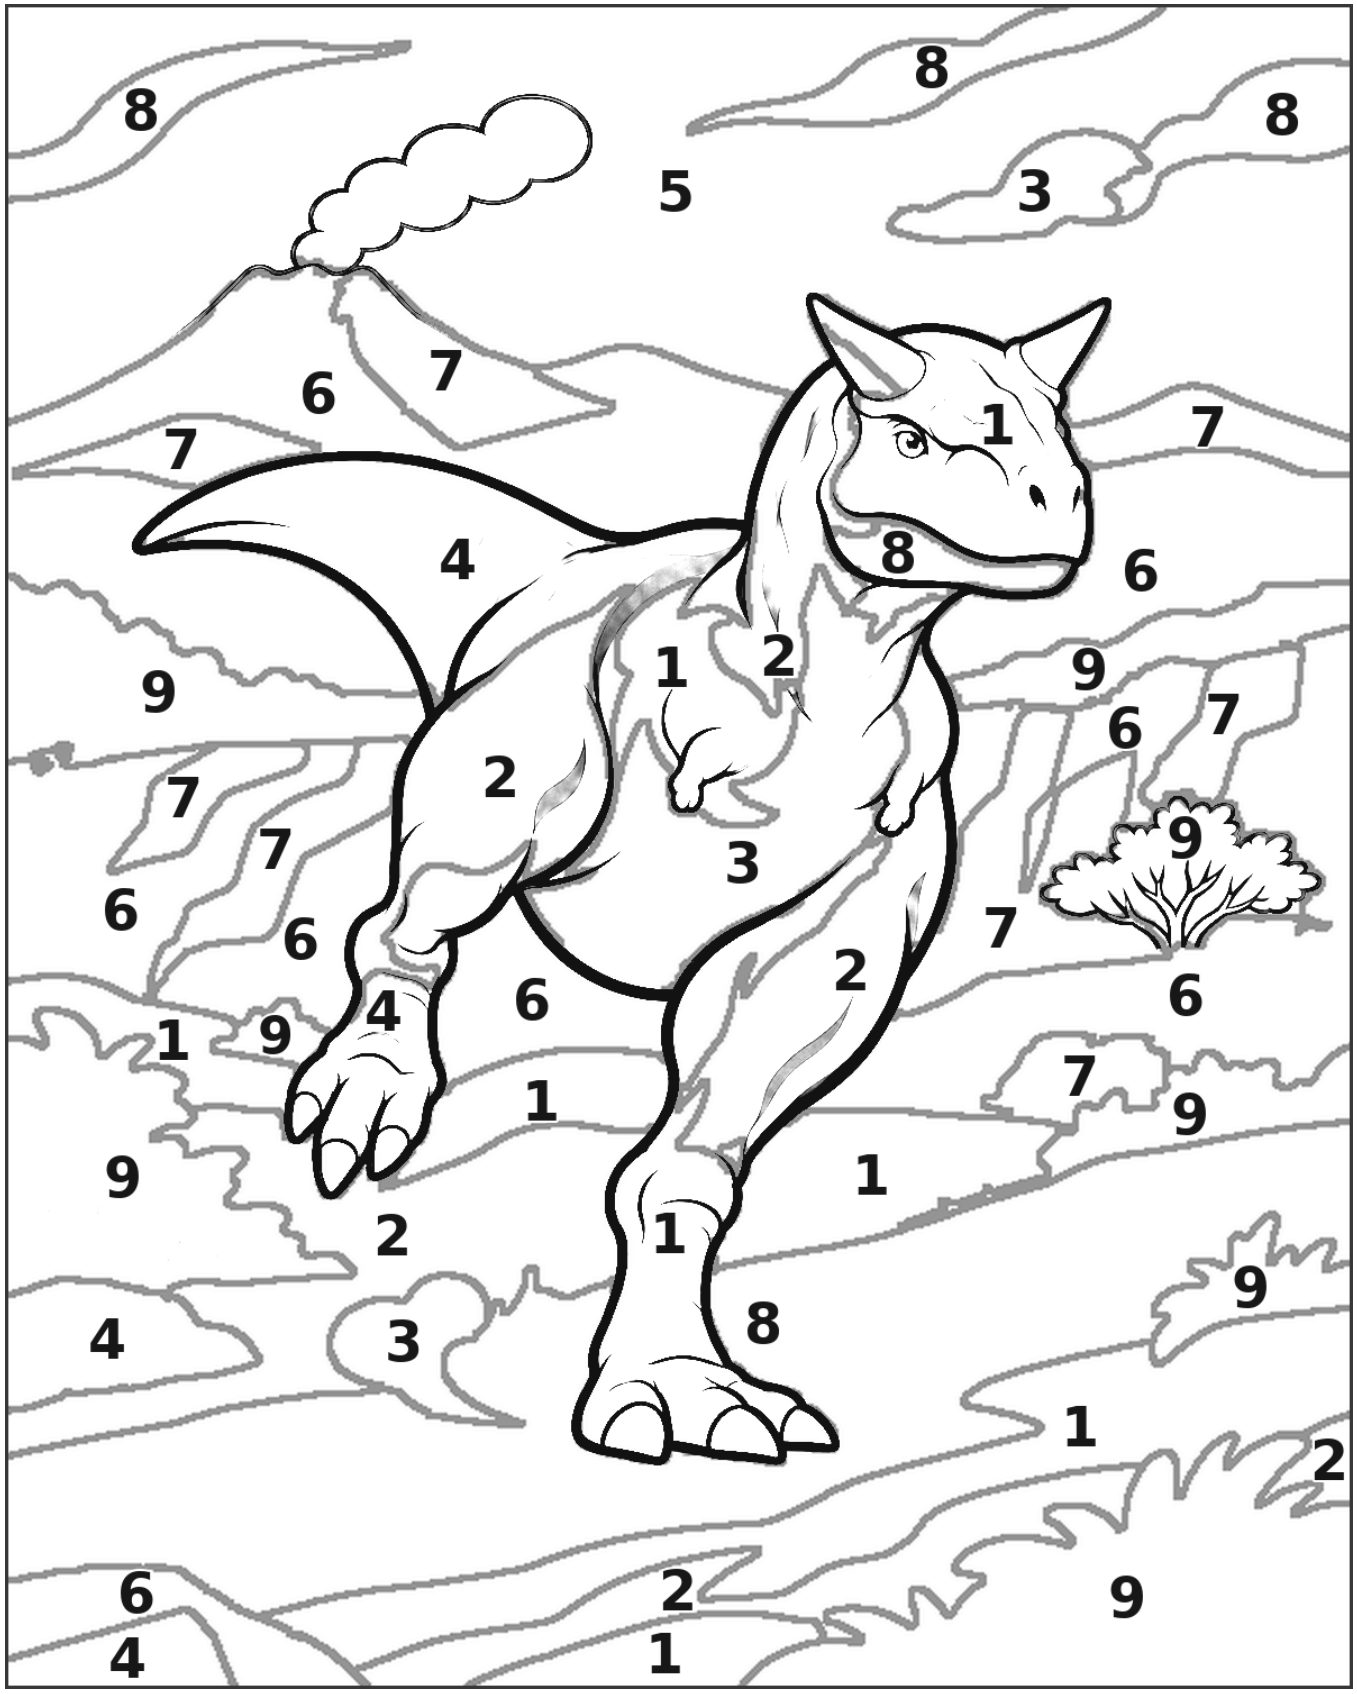
Carnotaurus

Why was it called the meat-eating bull?



1 Auburn
2 Brick
3 Cream
4 Deep plum
5 Peach sky
6 Slate
7 Mauve
8 Sandstone
9 Blue spruce

Did you know? Carnotaurus had a pair of bony horns above its eyes. The horns inspired its bull-like name, even though it walked on two legs and ate meat. Fossils from Argentina also show that its arms were unusually short.
