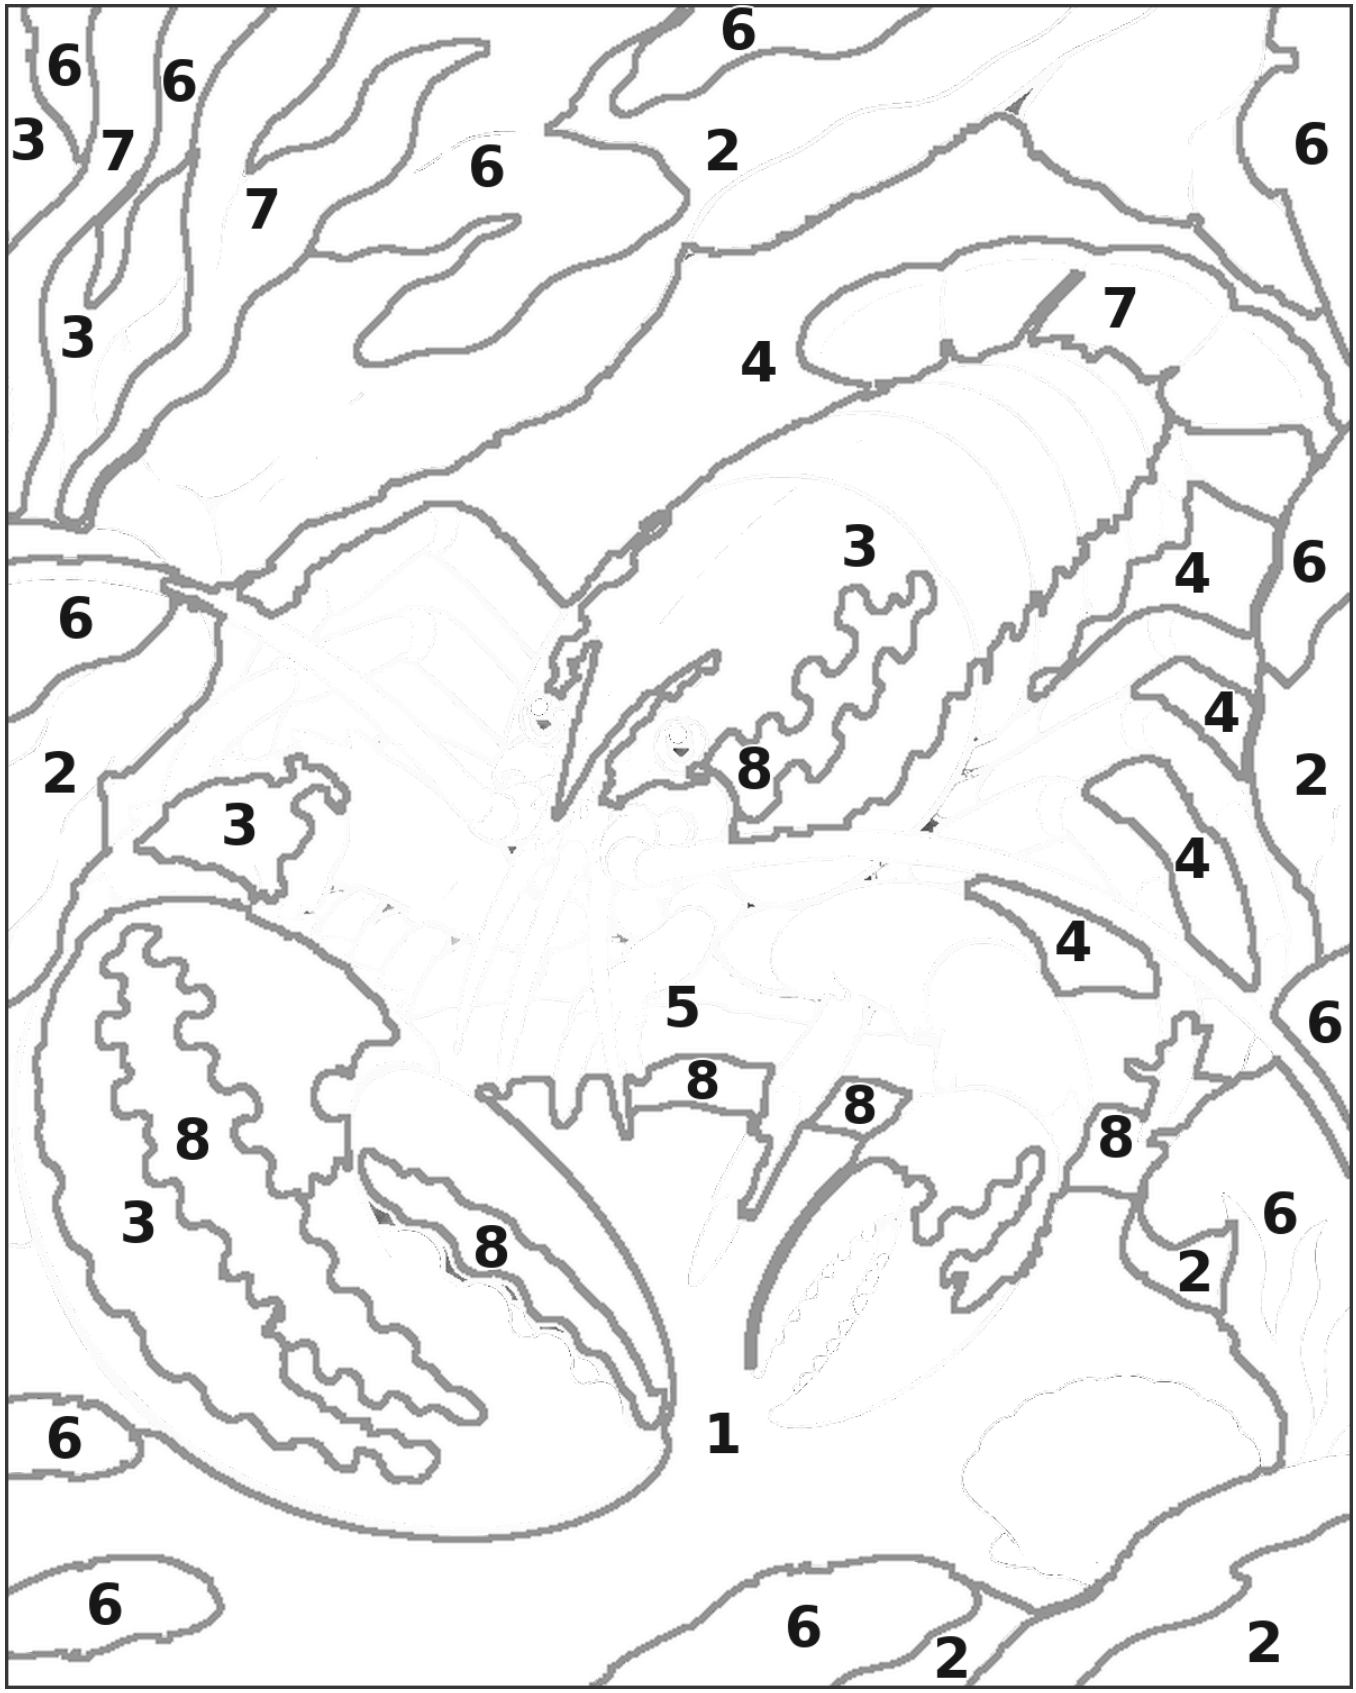
American Lobster

Why are a lobster's front claws different?



1 Gold
2 Denim
3 Pine
4 Ink blue
5 Cocoa
6 Lagoon
7 Olive
8 Honey

Did you know? An American lobster has a thick crusher claw for breaking hard food and a slimmer cutter claw for gripping and tearing. The larger claw can grow on either side, so two lobsters can look like mirror images.