Komodo Dragon

Why does a Komodo dragon flick its tongue?

1 Cocoa
2 Sky
3 Snow
4 Denim
5 Meadow
6 Copper
7 Clay
8 Rust
9 Gold

Did you know? A Komodo dragon picks up scent particles with its forked tongue. A sensory organ in the roof of its mouth reads those scents, helping the lizard find food even when it is out of sight.