Sleeping Kitten

Do cats sleep all day?

Did you know? Cats often sleep for 12 to 16 hours a day, in bouts of different lengths. Many are especially active around dawn and dusk, when the light is changing. If a cat naps through the afternoon, it may be ready to play just as the evening begins.