Concrete Mixer

Why does the drum turn while the truck travels?

Did you know? Turning the drum keeps fresh concrete moving together on the way to the site. Blades inside the drum help mix and move it. When it is time to unload, the concrete can flow from the back into the chute.