Beagle on the Trail

Why does a beagle sniff in short bursts?

Did you know? Each sniff draws new air past the dog's nose. The shape of its nasal passages sends some air toward the surfaces that sense odors. Quick sniffs help a dog sample the trail again as it moves.