Shepherd Scent Search

How can a dog find a hidden object with its nose?

Did you know? Every object can carry a mix of scents. In scent work, a dog learns which smell to look for, then searches spaces where the smell is strongest. It can signal to its handler when it finds the right spot.