Frost Unicorn

Where does the ice inside some caves come from?

Did you know? In some caves, cold air gets trapped. Water that seeps or drips into the cave can freeze and build layers of ice. Even during warmer months, the sheltered ice may take a long time to melt.