Opal Seahorse

Why does a real seahorse curl its tail?

Did you know? A seahorse can wrap its tail around a blade of seagrass or another holdfast. This helps it stay in one place when water moves past. A tail that grips like this is called prehensile.