Paper Nautilus

Why is a nautilus shell divided into rooms?

Did you know? A nautilus lives in the newest and largest chamber of its shell. It can adjust the mix of gas and liquid in the older chambers. This helps it stay buoyant as it moves through water.